

Wilfrid Laurier vs Guelph

Game Preview

For the second consecutive season, the Wilfrid Laurier Golden Hawks and the Guelph Gryphons tangle in an OUA basketball playoff doubleheader. The Hawks, the third-seed in both the women's and men's game, will look to repeat their sweep from a year ago against the sixth-seeded Gryphons.

Entering post-season play, both Laurier squads have been struggling, with the women only posting one victory in their last four games while the men have just one win in their last five. As for Guelph, their women have won three of their last four but the men are in a tailspin, having lost their last eight contests.

In the women's game, the Hawks are going to need to continue to receive contributions from the entire lineup as three players will miss tonight's game due to injury; Amber Hillis, Doreen Bonsu and Samantha Jacobs. However, leading scorer Felicia Mazerolle will be back for her second game since returning from injury and her presence in the backcourt makes Laurier a better offensive and defensive team. Also keep an eye on Kimberley Yeldon who had a breakout season for the Hawks, more than doubling her point total from a year ago.

Laurier will look to keep a close eye on Gryphons third year guard Ali Dzikowski, who averaged a team-high 11.7 points and 4.3 rebounds this season.

As for the men's game, the Hawks are going to need to find a way to get their confidence back at both ends of the floor. Laurier has struggled with their shooting as of late, their staple early on in the season, as they shot just 31 percent in their last loss to McMaster. The team has also allowed over 90 points against in their last two losses. However, this veteran team has all the tools to go on a deep run here in the playoffs so look for Kale Harrison and Matthew Buckley to step up their performances tonight.

Look for the Hawks to limit the touches that Guelph guard Daniel McCarthy receives as he averaged over 20 points a game against Laurier this season.

NEED TO KNOW

Women

- Courtney Bruce has taken advantage of an increase in playing time as of late, averaging 8.5 points in her last two games

- Laura Doyle is also playing well entering the playoffs, scoring 10 or more points in three of the Hawks last five games, connecting on 10 three point attempts over that span

Men

- Kale Harrison finishes his career at Laurier 3rd all-time in scoring in the OUA with 1,918 points

- Harrison also finishes his career as the holder of 18 different records at Laurier including points and rebounds in a career

- Matthew Buckley finished his career second behind Harrison for rebounds in a career at Laurier but holds the top two spots for rebounds in a season
